Often your father shows proudly a very old wooden pen and used to tell us that it was his grandpa's pen. Do you remember it?

Tamilini: Yes, amma! Normally he keeps it in a beautiful wooden case on his table. Is that the one?

Mother: You are right, Tamilini. We cannot write with that pen now. But, father has kept it as a treasure. If you ask your father about that, he will show you the diary written by your great grandpa with that old pen. From that diary, we come to know that your great grandpa was a literate, while most of his villagers were illiterates. Further, we can understand the lifestyle of that period and also about activities from his diary writings.

Tamilini: Can this small diary record so much of news, amma?

Mother: Yes, Tamilini. We understand the period and lifestyles of people of Old Stone Age from used stone tools, like what you understand about your grandpa and his time from his diary writing.
