Do you know The hidden treasures of the Indus civilisation

Inscriptions (written in a script of those times) can provide us information about customs, practices and other aspects of any place or time. So far, the Indus script has not been deciphered. Therefore, we must look for other clues to know about the Indus people and their lifestyle.

Apparel

- Cotton fabrics were in common use.
- Clay spindles unearthed suggest that yarn was spun.
- Wool was also used.

Love and peace

- Settlements were built on giant platforms and elevated grounds.
- The Indus Civilisation seems to have been a peaceful one. Few weapons were found and there is no evidence of an army.
- They displayed their status with garments and precious jewellery.
- They had an advanced civic sense.

Ornaments

- Ornaments were popular among men and women.
- They adorned themselves with necklaces, armlets, bangles, finger rings, ear studs and anklets.
- The ornaments were made of gold, silver, ivory, shell, copper, terracotta and precious stones.

Horse and iron were unknown to the people of Indus.

Indus people used the red quartz stone called Carnelian to design jewellery.
