Who Governed them?

Historians believe that there existed a central authority that controlled planning of towns and overseas trade, maintenance of drainage and peace in the city.

Occupation

- The main occupation of the Indus Civilisation people is not known. However, agriculture, handicrafts, pottery making, jewellery making, weaving, carpentry and trading were practiced.
- There were merchants, traders and artisans.
- Rearing of cattle was another occupation.
- People of those times knew how to use the potter's wheel.
- They reared domesticated animals.

Pottery

- Pottery was practiced using the potter's wheel. It was well fired. Potteries were red in colour with beautiful designs in black.
- The broken pieces of pottery have animal figures and geometric designs on it.

Religious Belief

We don't have any evidence pointing to specific deities or their religious practices. There might have been worship of Mother Goddess (which symbolized fertility), which is concluded based upon the excavation of several female figurines.
