

Velan and Ponni exclaimed, "What? Is it a dolphin? Marine acrobatic animal? How can it live in a river?

Manimaran said, "There are river dolphins in our country. The dolphins that live in the rivers have a long snout similar to the Gharial crocodiles. Just like bats, they use the ultrasound waves to catch their prey. They are essentially blind.

Velan said, "That was an interesting detail".

"Do you know the name of the river beside which we are now on?".

"The rich harvests of the fertile plains of Ganges was mentioned in one of Bharathiyar's famous songs. Am I on the same banks of Ganges? My father asked me to collect some information about this place before visiting it," said Ponni.

"No doubt about it."

"Do you know that this river is 2,525 km long and is the longest river in India?" said Velan stunning everyone around.

"Though Brahmaputra is 3848 km long, it does not flow across India. So, What Velan said is right" said Veena.

Manimaran said, "We have seen a lot of things. Now let us relax. Come, let us have these pieces of mangoes."

"These mangoes are very tasty, what kind of mangoes are these?" asked Veena eagerly.

"This kind of mango is known as 'Imam pasand' a variety of mango that was cultivated during the Mughal reign for the royal family. This is occasionally found in the forest. Even this was picked from the mango grove at the fringes of this forest" said Manimaran. Eveyone got into the vehicle and were ready to go.

"Now we are going to see another wonder" said Manimaran and drove the vehicle around a big banyan tree with countless roots around. He travelled
