

"Yes, it is true. There are other reasons why this constitution came into existence on 26th January 1950. When the Congress met at Lahore in 1929, the members of the Congress unofficially declared the same day as the Day of Poorna Swaraj or the Day of complete self governance. The next year, 26th January 1930 was celebrated as the Independence Day. That day has been observed as our Republic Day".

"What do you mean by the "Constitution of India" asked Nathar.

"Before that, let me ask a few questions. You answer me. Then I will explain in detail about the constitution of India".

"All right sir".

(The students were prepared to answer the questions)

"Are you following any rules and regulation at home?"

"Yes sir"

"Are you following any rules at school?"

"Yes sir"

"Are both of them the same or different?"

"Mostly, they are different"

"Is it necessary to follow certain rules in public places?"

"Yes, Sir"

"Why is it necessary?"

"We should not disturb anybody in public" said Tamilselvi.

"It's true. Also no one should disturb us"said Selva

"Yes, I do accept it. But what if someone compels you to follow some rules? How would you feel?"

"It would be difficult to do so."

"How do you feel when you are asked to make your own rules?"

"We would be proud and pleased to obey our own rules".

(Everyone agreed and nodded their heads)

"The Constitution is an authentic document containing the basic ideas, principles and laws of a country. It also defines the rights and duties of citizens. The laws governing a country originate from the consitutition. Every country is ruled on the basis of its constitution"

"What are the things that make the constitution of India?" asked Deepika.

"The constitution of India is the ultimate law. We have to abide by it. It explains the fundamental concepts of structure, methods,
