

"How much was spent to frame the constitution of India?" asked Nathar.

"They spent almost 64 lakhs".

"What are the objectives of the Constitution?".

"The Preamble of our constitution stresses on the justice, liberty, equality and fraternity".

"What is a Preamble?"

"The preface of the constitution is the Preamble. According to it, India is a Sovereign, socialist, Secular democratic republic".

What does it mean by 'Sovereign'?

"The constitution has granted the people the right to rule. The members of the parliament and the legislative assembly are elected by the people. The right to decide is only in the hands of the representatives. Sovereignty refers to the ultimate power of the country."

What is the meaning of "Secular"?

"Law allows all the citizens of a country, the right to follow different faith and religious beliefs. All citizens enjoy the freedom of worship. The country does not have a religion of its own. All the religions in our country hold the same status".

"The Government of India rules through the Parliament, doesn't it?"

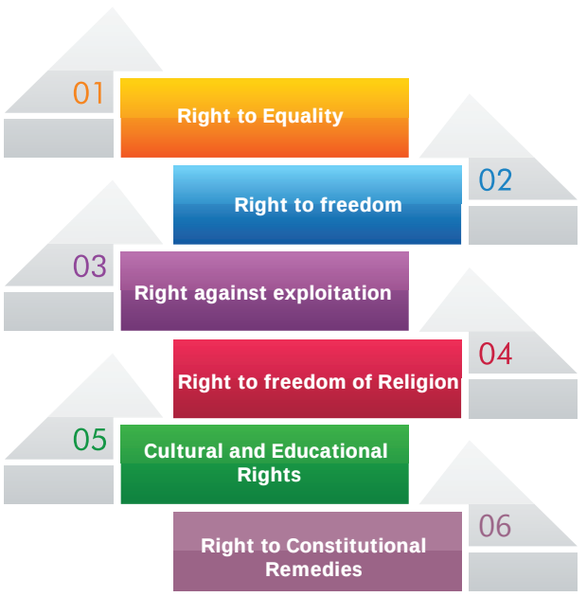

"Yes, the Constitution of India provides a Parliamentary form of Government, both at the centre and the state. In a Parliamentary System, the Executive is collectively responsible to the Legislature. The party which has the majority forms the government."

"What are fundamental rights?"

"Fundamental rights are the basic human rights of all citizens".

"What are they?"

Fundamental rights
