"They are Right to Equality. Right to freedom, Right against exploitation, Right to freedom of Religion, Cultural and Educational Rights and Right to Constitutional Remedies."

"You mentioned about Directive Principles. What do you mean by that?"

"There are certain guidelines to be followed while the governments frame law. Though these are not mandatory, they should be taken into account".

"What is Universal Adult Franchise?"

"Every Indian citizen has the right to vote when they attain 18 years of age, irrespective of any caste, religion, gender or economic status".

"Like fundamental rights, every citizen will have duties too, won't they?"

"Yes, There are duties respecting the National flag and National Anthem, respect and protect the Constitution, follow our great leaders who fought for our freedom, to protect our country, readiness to serve our country if necessary, treating everyone as brothers irrespective of their castes, religions, languages, races etc., to conserve our ancient heritage, and conserve natural elements like forests, rivers and lakes and fauna, to develop science, humanity and feelings of reformation to avoid non-violence and protect government property, parents or guardians providing educational opportunities to children between 6-14 years etc., have been added as our duties" Mr. Arumugam concluded his discussion.

The original copies of the Constitution of India (Hindi, English) are preserved in special Helium filled cases in the Library of the Parliament of India.
